Theoretical Thrust Curves - use with sect 2.2

Instead of digitizing thrust curves, use the .txt files on the webpage. See the links at `http://www.physics.csbsju.edu/~jcrumley/370/rocket/`.

Experimental Thrust Curves - use with sect 2.3

Vernier Graphical Analysis is a Google-Chrome app similar to Logger Pro.

To install it goto the following link from within Google-Chrome and install the app.

`https://chrome.google.com/webstore/detail/vernier-graphical-analysi/dncgedbnidfkppmdgfgidcepclnokpkb`

(Or follow the link from: `http://www.vernier.com/products/software/ga-chrome/`)

Note that you will need to be logged into a Google (Gmail account) within Google Chrome to run this app. If no one in your lab group has one, let me know.
